

Reference Services

for Michigan's Public Health Workforce

Reference Librarians at the University of Michigan's Public Health Library & Informatics are available to answer reference questions for public health workers in the state of Michigan.

We can help you:

- Search databases
- Find statistics
- Locate a fact
- Research a topic
- Discover new resources
- And more...

You can reach a Reference Librarian by email at sph.reference@umich.edu or telephone at 734-763-5109.

This is a pilot program which will be reviewed at six-month intervals.
